AN UNSTOPPABLE LITERARY MOVEMENT

Black Romance BOOK FEST

50K | 10K | 17K

ABOUT BLACK ROMANCE BOOK FEST

Black Romance Book Fest (BRBF) is the nation's premier celebration of Black romance literature and the largest Black book event in the United States. Held annually in Atlanta, Georgia, the festival brings together thousands of readers alongside bestselling and emerging authors, narrators, content creators, publishers, booksellers, and literary professionals for a weekend celebrating stories, culture, and community. Recognized as one of the country's leading literary events, BRBF serves as a national platform for amplifying Black voices, championing representation in publishing, and showcasing the cultural and economic impact of Black literature through immersive experiences, engaging conversations, and meaningful connections.

CONFERENCE ATTENDEES
3,800+

PARTICIPATING AUTHORS
200+

PROGRAMS
40+

CONTENT CREATORS
150

MEDIA INQUIRIES

For media, interview, sponsorship, and partnership inquiries:
Lauren Lacey | Executive Director
contact@blackromancebookfest.com

PARTNERSHIP INFORMATION

FEATURED IN

UATL AJC
11 ALIVE
WSB-TV 2 ATLANTA